- (i) Authorized pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction;
  - Or
  - (ii) Necessary for certain medical facilities to maintain my medical records.
- (d) If I have authorized a person to retain my genetic information, I may request that the person destroy my genetic information. Such a person shall destroy the information, unless retention of the information is:
- (i) Necessary to conduct a criminal investigation, an investigation concerning the death of a person or a criminal or juvenile proceeding;
  - (ii) Authorized by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction;
  - (iii) Necessary for certain medical facilities to maintain my medical records; or
  - (iv) Authorized or required by state or federal law.
- (e) Except as otherwise provided by federal law or regulation, a person who obtains my genetic information for use in a study shall destroy the information upon completion of the study or my withdrawal from the study, whichever occurs first, unless I authorize the person conducting the study to retain my genetic information after the study is completed or upon my withdrawal from the study.
- (f) It is unlawful for a person to disclose or to compel another person to disclose my identity if I was the subject of a genetic test or to disclose to another person genetic information that allows the other person to identify me without first obtaining my information consent, unless the information is disclosed:

- (i) To conduct a criminal investigation, and investigation concerning the death of a person or a criminal or juvenile proceeding;
- (ii) To determine the percentage or identity of a person in certain circumstances;
